Shared Success through Effective Board-Superintendent Partnerships

Phil Gore, PhD
OSBA Summer Board Conference
July 21, 2018
School board effectiveness hinges upon strong board-superintendent relationships.
What’s really going on?
Effective Governance is neither Rubber stamping nor Micromanaging
Effects of destabilizing behavior

— Tom Alsbury

Board member behavior → Board member turnover → Superintendent turnover → Policy, goals, & personnel change → Student achievement decline
WHAT DO YOU WANT?
What board members consider when they evaluate a superintendent
The Learning District

A Systems Approach to Improved Student Learning (Lorentzen & McCaw)
References

Thank You!
Phil.Gore@tasb.org

The information in this presentation may include the intellectual property of third parties.